Privacy Policy
We do not provide information that can identify individuals to third parties with the application you use.
Pay close attention to the management of personal information and treat it as listed below.

● The setting screen of the application has a function to send opinions / requests and trouble reports by e-mail.
In order to help solve the problem, device information such as version of OS, model such as mobile or tablet, version of application etc. is transmitted.

● In order to improve the convenience of the application, careful attention is paid to the extent that an individual can not be identified anonymously, and access analysis is carried out.
For example, when an application crashes, we send anonymously what part it crashed and help us fix bugs quickly.
Also, it analyzes the device, the usage rate of the application version, the utilization rate of the specific function, etc., and it helps improve the application.
(For example, prioritizing improvements of more used functions)
